

LAUREN RUDD

Jahroc Local Artists Stockroom Sale

Thursday 3rd Dec – Monday 7th Dec. 5 Days Only

This torso was a test piece. I wanted to try out a couple of glazes on a large piece to see how they would flow.

The entire body has an under glaze of oxides. I then over glazed the back with a white and the front with a clear glaze.

Approx. 500 mm high

$480

This piece I call Blue Nouveau.

I really enjoyed the carving of the leg and it reminded me of the flowing style of Nouveau.

The front base of the left facing leg has slight damage which is why it is reduced and in the sale.

The body is treated with oxides and a clear glaze over

Approx. 570mm high $1050

Angel Cup.

This piece and the 2 lady reliefs are more test pieces for glazing. The images shown are of the un-glazed work. [They are in the kiln going through the glaze firing now. I have treated the bodies with oxides and both white & clear, then some glass overlayed.] They are part of a series of up to 25 pressing from my original mould.

Prices available at the opening.

Small test torsos for more glazes.
The torsos range from 80mm – 120
mm.
$35 - $50

Also on sale by Lauren Rudd but not photographed is a range of jewellery and framed prints.
